WHEREAS, as of April 28, 2020, the Los Angeles County of Public Health has confirmed 22,485 cases of COVID-19 in Los Angeles County and has advised that bold and aggressive measures are required to be put in place to prevent the further spread of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the public health emergency and the precautions recommended by health authorities, many residential and commercial tenants in Santa Monica have experienced or expect soon to experience sudden and unexpected income loss; and

WHEREAS, the Governor of the State of California has stated that individuals exposed to COVID-19 may be temporarily unable to report to work due to illness caused by COVID-19 or quarantines related to COVID-19 and individuals directly affected by COVID-19 may experience potential loss of income, health care and medical coverage, and ability to pay for housing and basic needs, thereby placing increased demands on already strained regional and local health and safety resources, including shelters and food banks; and

WHEREAS, further economic impacts are anticipated, leaving residential and commercial tenants vulnerable to eviction; and

WHEREAS, during this local emergency, and in the interest of protecting the public health and preventing transmission of COVID-19, it is essential to avoid unnecessary housing displacement, to protect the City's affordable housing stock, to prevent housed individuals from falling into homelessness, and to prevent loss of local businesses; and

WHEREAS, this local emergency includes an economic crisis that could only worsen the existing housing crisis in the City and in Los Angeles County; and

WHEREAS, the City cannot mitigate in the emergency environment the instability and disruption of residential housing that might occur when multi-family buildings are removed from the rental market under the Ellis Act; and

WHEREAS, Ellis Act removals and other no-fault evictions would displace residents from their homes during imposition of COVID-19 related social distancing, quarantine, and home isolation orders that make searching for new housing infeasible and potentially dangerous to one's health and safety; and

WHEREAS, the City's Housing Trust Fund Guidelines and Affordable Housing Production Program contemplate that the City's affordable housing applicants will be selected from the City's waiting list; and

WHEREAS, the City's Housing Trust Fund Guidelines and Affordable Housing Production Program currently provide a preference for applicants who are either residents of Santa Monica and/or who work at least thirty-six (36) hours per week within the City of Santa Monica; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 sheltering orders have adversely impacted part-time workers by causing a reduction in work hours per week within the City of Santa Monica, and thus reduced eligibility for those applicants who would otherwise qualify for a preference on the City's waiting list for affordable housing units in the absence of COVID-19 impacts; and

WHEREAS, a reduction in the work hour requirement from thirty-six (36) to twenty-five (25) work hours per week within the City of Santa Monica would allow those applicants with reduced work hours to qualify for a preference on the City's waiting list during the period that the COVID-19 shelter-in-place orders remain in effect; and

WHEREAS, applicants who were employed within the City of Santa Monica at least twenty-five (25) hours per week as of March 1, 2020 and subsequently experienced reduced work hours or loss of employment due to COVID-19 would be eligible for the preference; and

WHEREAS, on April 22, 2020, the Governor of California issued Executive Order N-54-20, suspending Public Resources Code section 42283 for a period of 60 days to the extent that it prohibits retail establishments from (a) providing without charge reusable grocery bags or recycled paper bags to customers at point of sale, or (b) where it is not possible to provide reusable grocery bags or recycled paper bags, providing single-use carryout bags to customers at point of sale; and

WHEREAS, California Government Code 8634 empowers the City to promulgate orders and regulations necessary to provide for the protection of life and property during a local emergency, and

WHEREAS, in the interest of public health and safety, as affected by the emergency caused by the spread of COVID-19, it is necessary to exercise my authority pursuant to Section 2.16.060 of the Santa Monica Municipal Code to issue this regulation related to the protection of life and property.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lane Dilg, the Director of Emergency Services for the City of Santa Monica, do hereby issue the following order to become effective immediately, subject to ratification as soon as practicable by the City Council:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. For purposes of this Order, the following terms shall be defined as follows:
  - a. "Endeavor to evict" includes, but is not limited to: serving a Notice to Pay or Quit, a Notice to Perform Covenant or Quit, a Notice of Termination, or any other eviction notice; filing or pursuing an unlawful detainer action based on such notices; or seeking to terminate a tenancy or evict a tenant through other means.
  - b. "Commercial tenant" means any tenant of commercial real property, except a tenant that is a multi-national company, a publicly traded company, or a company that, with its affiliates, employs more than 500 employees.
  - c. For a residential tenant, "financial impacts related to COVID-19" include, but are not limited to, lost household income as a result of any of the following: (1) being sick with COVID-19, or caring for someone who is sick with COVID-19; (2) layoff, loss of hours, or other income reduction resulting from reduction of hours or closures or any other economic impacts of COVID-19; (3) compliance with a recommendation from a government health authority to stay home, self-quarantine, or avoid congregating with others during the state of emergency; (4) extraordinary out-of-pocket medical expenses; or (5) child care needs arising from school closures or other circumstances related to COVID-19.

d. For a commercial tenant, “financial impacts related to COVID-19” include, but are not limited to, lost business income as a result of any of the following: (1) the commercial tenant or its employees being sick with COVID-19, or caring for someone who is sick with COVID-19; (2) reduction in or closure of hours of operation, increase in costs and labor, delays or interruptions, or any other economic impacts of COVID-19; (3) compliance with a recommendation from a government health authority to stay home, self-quarantine, or avoid congregating with others during the state of emergency.

2. A temporary moratorium on eviction for nonpayment of rent by residential and commercial tenants impacted by the COVID-19 crisis is imposed as follows:

a. No landlord shall endeavor to evict a residential or commercial tenant for nonpayment of rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19, until twelve months after the expiration of this Order.

b. If a tenant is unable to pay rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19, the tenant shall provide notice and documentation to the landlord within 30 days after rent is due. The tenant must provide notice and documentation in writing, which may be email, text, letter, or any other form of written communication. Notice and documentation that indicates any loss of income or increase in expenses due to COVID-19 is sufficient. A statement written by the tenant in a single communication may constitute both notice and documentation.

c. If a landlord receives notice and documentation that a tenant cannot pay rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19, and the landlord nonetheless endeavors to evict the tenant, then the landlord will be deemed to have taken action to terminate a tenancy based upon a legal theory that is untenable under the facts known to the landlord. If a landlord does so by serving a 3-day notice in bad faith, filing an unlawful detainer complaint in bad faith that terminates in the tenant’s favor, or otherwise endeavoring to evict in bad faith, the landlord will be deemed to have violated the City’s Tenant Harassment Ordinance, as set forth in Section 4.56.020 of the Santa Monica Municipal Code.

d. A landlord may not charge or collect a late fee, penalty, or interest for rent that is delayed for reasons stated in this Order.

e. Regardless of any payment plan agreement, a residential tenant will have up to twelve months following the expiration of this Order to pay any rent that was unpaid due to financial impacts related to COVID-19 while this Order was in effect.

f. A landlord may not recover rent that is delayed for reasons stated in this Order if the landlord has already obtained compensation for the rent through federal or state government relief funds or other programs that provide such compensation.

3. A temporary moratorium on eviction for no-fault evictions of residential tenants is imposed as follows:

a. No landlord shall endeavor to evict a residential tenant in a no-fault eviction.

b. No landlord shall remove any residential rental unit from the rental market pursuant to the Ellis Act, California Government Code Section 7060, et seq. For any rental unit that has already been removed from the rental market pursuant to the Ellis Act, the period of time before such a tenancy is terminated after notice shall not begin until sixty days after the expiration of this Order.

4. No landlord shall endeavor to evict a residential tenant based on the presence of unauthorized occupants or their pets, or based on nuisance, unless the nuisance substantially endangers or impairs the health or safety of a tenant or other persons in the vicinity of the premises, or causes or threatens to cause substantial damage to the premises, and the reason is stated in the notice as the grounds for the eviction.

5. A temporary moratorium on evictions for a residential tenant's denial of entry by the landlord is imposed as follows:

a. A landlord shall not endeavor to evict a tenant on the ground that the tenant denied entry by the landlord, unless the tenant unreasonably denied entry for the landlord to remedy a condition that substantially endangers or impairs the health or safety of a tenant or other persons in the vicinity of the premises, or that is causing or threatening to cause substantial damage to the premises.

b. If a landlord seeks to remedy such a condition, the landlord shall not permit entry by any person who is, or who the landlord has good cause to believe is, a carrier of the COVID-19 virus. The landlord must ensure that appropriate social distancing, cleaning, and sanitation measures are taken to protect from risk of transmitting the COVID-19 virus during the entry. Such measures must account for: the tenant's report that the tenant or a member of the tenant's household has or believes in good faith to have been recently been exposed to the COVID-19 virus; or the tenant's report that the tenant or a member of the tenant's household is at a higher risk for more serious complications from the COVID-19 virus.

c. A landlord who enters the premises shall promptly leave the premises if the tenant revokes permission to enter because of the landlord's failure to observe appropriate social distancing, cleaning, and sanitization measures.

d. For purposes of this section, "landlord" includes, but is not limited to, any person authorized by the owner to enter the premises, such as maintenance personnel, a prospective buyer, or a prospective tenant.

6. A landlord must provide tenants with the following notices:

a. A landlord must provide, in accordance with the procedures set forth below, a notice that states: "You might be protected from eviction under certain circumstances, including nonpayment of rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19. If you are unable to pay rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19, you must provide notice and documentation to your landlord in writing within 30 days after rent is due. If you are a residential tenant, you may also be protected from eviction for certain other reasons. For additional information, contact the City of Santa Monica's Coronavirus Hotline at (310) 458-8400 or visit santamonica.gov/coronavirus." This notice must be provided to tenants in writing by mail or email, or by posting in a conspicuous location in the lobby of the property, near a mailbox used by residents of the property, or in or near a public entrance to the property. The notice must be written in the language that the landlord normally uses for verbal communications with the tenant.

b. A landlord must include an additional copy of the same notice with any Notice to Pay Rent or Quit, Notice to Perform Covenant or Quit, Notice to Terminate, and any other notice given as part of an eviction process, in bold underlined 12-point or larger font.

c. If a landlord files an unlawful detainer action during the period in which the Judicial Council Emergency Rules prohibit courts from issuing a summons in an unlawful detainer action unless necessary to protect public health and safety, the landlord must serve the tenant with a copy of the complaint within 3 days of filing the complaint.

d. A landlord who has provided notice as required under section 6, subsection a. of this Order to a tenant under a previous revision of this Order is not required to provide an additional notice to the tenant under section 6, subsection a of this Order.

7. Any medical or financial information that a tenant provides to a landlord to seek protections provided by this Order shall be held in confidence and only used as documentation for processing the tenant's claim under this Order.

8. This Order grants the following affirmative defenses:

a. This Order grants an affirmative defense that may be raised at any time in an unlawful detainer action in the event that the action is commenced in violation of this Order.

b. In addition, this Order grants an affirmative defense that may be raised at any time by a residential or commercial tenant in an unlawful detainer action or by a residential tenant in any other civil action in the event that the action is commenced based on nonpayment of rent due to the financial impacts of COVID-19 as described above in this Order, regardless of whether the tenant provided the landlord with notice and documentation. Notice and documentation shall create a rebuttable presumption that a tenant is unable to pay rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19.

c. In addition, this Order grants an affirmative defense that may be raised at any time in an unlawful detainer action in the event that the action is commenced based on a no-fault eviction, or the landlord removed the residential unit from the rental market pursuant to the Ellis Act, California Government Code Section 7060, et seq. during the term of this Order, or the residential rental unit was previously removed from the rental market pursuant to the Ellis Act and the period of time before such a tenancy is terminated after notice began less than sixty days after the expiration of this Order, as described above in this Order.

d. In addition, this Order grants an affirmative defense that may be raised at any time in an unlawful detainer action in the event that the action is commenced based on a residential tenant's denial of entry by the landlord, as described above in this Order.

e. In addition, this Order grants an affirmative defense that may be raised at any time in an unlawful detainer action in the event that the action is commenced based on the presence of unauthorized occupants or their pets or a nuisance that does not substantially endanger or impair the health or safety of a tenant or other persons in the vicinity of the premises or cause or threaten to cause substantial damage to the premises, or the action is commenced following an eviction notice that did not state the reason serving as the grounds for the eviction.

f. In addition, this Order grants an affirmative defense that may be raised at any time in an unlawful detainer action in the event that the action is commenced when the landlord failed to include the required notice language in an eviction notice, as described above in this Order.

g. Except for Section 8(f) of this Order, the affirmative defenses granted in this Order shall apply to all actions on or after March 14, 2020. An affirmative defense under Section 8(f) of this Order shall apply for actions taken on or after April 24, 2020.

9. Any provision in a rental agreement, payment plan, or any other agreement between a landlord and tenant that waives or modifies any rights under this Order shall be void as contrary to public policy.

10. A landlord may not deceive a tenant in connection with the rights and obligations under this Order. For purposes of this section, “deceive” includes intentional misrepresentation, negligent misrepresentation, concealment of a material fact, or false promise.

11. The guideline at the top of page 13 of the City’s Housing Trust Fund Guidelines shall be implemented with the following changes:

(2) Second priority shall be given to persons who are either:

13. To the extent they prohibit retail establishments from (a) providing without charge reusable grocery bags or recycled paper bags to customers at point of sale, or (b) where it is not possible to provide reusable grocery bags or recycled paper bags, providing single-use plastic carryout bags to customers at point of sale, Santa Monica Municipal Code sections 5.45.020 and 5.45.030 are suspended through the period in which the Second, Third, Revised Fourth, Revised Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, and Twelfth Supplements to the Executive Order of the Director of Emergency Services Declaring the Existence of a Local Emergency remain in effect, after which time the suspensions of Sections 5.45.020 and 5.45.030 shall automatically expire with no further notice or action.

14. This Order will be enforced as follows:

a. A tenant injured by a landlord's violation of any provision of this article has a private right of action against the landlord for violation of California Business and Professions Code Section 17200, et seq., and shall be entitled to attorney's fees and exemplary damages according to proof.

b. A landlord who serves an eviction notice in bad faith and without reasonable grounds, or files or pursues an eviction action in bad faith and without reasonable grounds that terminates in the tenant's favor, or otherwise seeks to wrongfully terminate a tenancy or evict a tenant shall be liable under this Order.

c. This Order shall be enforceable by the Santa Monica Police Department and any City Officer or employee granted authority to issue written notices to appear pursuant to Santa Monica Municipal Code Section 3.36.090 as a misdemeanor pursuant to Government Code Section 8665 and Santa Monica Municipal Code Section 2.16.100, or through the issuance of administrative citations in accordance with Chapter 1.09 of the Santa Monica Municipal Code. Pursuant to Santa Monica Municipal Code Section 1.09.040(c), a later payment charge of 10% of the applicable fine shall be imposed for the payment of an administrative fine imposed pursuant to this Order after its due date.

15. The Second Revised First Supplement to the Executive Order of the Director of Emergency Services Declaring the Existence of a Local Emergency (the "Second Revised First Supplement") is hereby retracted. This Third Revised First Supplement to the Executive Order of the Director of Emergency Services Declaring the Existence of a Local Emergency expressly supersedes and replaces the Second Revised First Supplement. However: (a) Section 1 of the First Supplement to the Executive Order of the Director of Emergency Services Declaring the Existence of a Local Emergency (the "First Supplement") may continue to be enforced with respect to actions taken between March 14, 2020 and March 18, 2020; (b) Sections 1 and 2 of the First Revised First Supplement may continue to be enforced with respect to actions taken between March 19, 2020 and April 8, 2020; and (c) the Second Revised First Supplement may continue to be enforced with respect to actions taken between April 9, 2020 and the effective date of this Order.

16. Except as otherwise provided, this Order shall take effect immediately and shall remain in effect until June 30, 2020, unless extended or expressly superseded by a duly enacted Resolution or Ordinance of the City Council or by a further Order by the Director of Emergency Services.

17. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Order is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Order. The Interim City Manager hereby declares that she would have issued this Executive Order, and any Supplement or Revised Supplement to this Executive Order, and each and every section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase not declared invalid or unconstitutional without regard to whether any portion of the ordinance would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.
